

Jane Austen Book Club

the third Thursday of each month at 7:00pm

Janeites and other lovers of Austen's works come together to discuss her immortal tales that have lasted through the centuries. Beginning with a focus on her six original novels, we will continue on to read contemporary spin-offs and more recent sequels. All are welcome to join us!

Please check the Main Desk for this month's title.

Jane Austen, of course, wise in her neatness, trim in her sedateness; she never fails, but there are few or none like her."

—Edith Wharton
